

LORIS EPIS, young and talented....

I've been really impressed by this young rider all week-end during the Derby event.. Not knowing who he was, after the run I saw in the Snaffle bit event I started asking around who he was...

Here it is: Loris Epis, 28 years old (birthday July 27,) comes from Parma, Italy. He has been in Canada for 2 years and his first show was July 14, 2007 only 3 weeks after starting to ride with Dean Brown, who was the head trainer at Fletcher's Horse World at that time.

On the first day he was second in the Rookie Professional Class and got his first win the next day.

2008 was Loris' first full year of showing and with the natural talent he possessed as a rider, the lessons learned from Dean Brown and some talented horses, he managed to achieve 41 N.R.H.A. class wins in 2008.
